

Partners in Motion / Gyro Productions - Official Video Supplier for the 2010 Saskatchewan Olympic Pavilion

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE February 17, 2010

Partners in Motion / Gyro Productions are thrilled to have been named the Official Video Supplier for the 2010 Saskatchewan Olympic Pavilion in Vancouver, Canada. As part of the company's comprehensive partnership with the Saskatchewan Olympic Pavilion they have produced several videos, which will be shown throughout the duration of the 2010 Olympics. These videos were created with footage supplied by Tourism Saskatchewan and Enterprise Saskatchewan.

"We are honoured to contribute and represent our province at such a historical event as the 2010 Olympics," said Ron Goetz, Executive Vice President / Executive Producer Partners in Motion / Gyro Productions.

Partners in Motion is a multi-dimensional entertainment entity engaged in the development, production and distribution of comprehensive, award-winning media programming seen in more than 150 countries around the world and heard in over 30 languages. As part of its constant evolution to meet the demands of a changing industry, Partners in Motion has created Gyro Productions, a new division specializing in commercial, corporate and service production for national and international clientele. As part of one of the largest production companies in western Canada, Gyro Productions is outfitted with all of the latest and greatest High Definition equipment.

Partners in Motion / Gyro Productions will be attending the 2010 Olympics and promoting the many products and services offered by both of the companies. Some of these products will include: corporate commercials and videos, as well as exciting new sports programming, including a hockey documentary entitled Blood, Sweat & Beers about the Bentley Generals triumph to the 2009 Allan Cup, and a television special entitled Riders: The First Hundred Years about the passion and perseverance of the Saskatchewan Roughriders.
